

RIFLE COMPANY BUTTERWORTH REVIEW

TO ALL,

From the RCB Review Committee:

The Defence Honours and Awards Tribunal has contacted the review committee advising that the submission is to be reviewed in 2010 and to forward detailed copies of all references as laid out in the submission. To facilitate this Robert Cross photo copied the 68 extra references and supporting documentation 510 pages and has forwarded it to Canberra.

The review will be a public hearing and organisations and individuals will be invited to submit any information they feel is relevant to the submission.

The Tribunal will notify the general public with press announcements in major state newspapers as required, the announcements will outline the requirements, address for submissions and cut off date. If any official media release are received they will be forwarded by this means.

In closing this may be the last time for sometime to get the submission reviewed with a positive outcome, so I would suggest if you have information or would like to present information this is your opportunity. If you could info Robert on any action you may take it would be appreciated.

"Keeping The Spirit Alive"

"...the first responsibility of government is the security of the nation. And it follows therefore that government has a particular responsibility towards those who have worn the nation's uniform. Because there is in my view no higher calling than to wear the uniform of Australia."

Kevin Rudd 8th Sept 2008
